

1. American Airlines

Hey dad, you are probably wondering how I got on TV. It doesn't matter. I'll tell you about it later. The important thing is I'm in Hawaii. Doesn't it look beautiful? See there is a beach and the ocean and (a pretty girl walks by) well there are tons of beautiful sights here. So Dad, I know you need a vacation as much as I do. So hop on American Airlines and have them fly you to Hawaii. You won't regret it.

2. Sun Chips

My chips are made with solar power. No wonder I feel warm inside. In California, SunChips snacks are made with the help of the sun. As if you needed another reason to love them. Live brightly, start with SunChips.

3. Marshals

I got my dark hair from my dad and my blue eyes from my mom. Yep, great genes. You can't pick your family jeans, but you can pick your blue jeans. So make the right choice and head to Marshals. I got great jeans from Marshals and all the jeans are on sale now, through Sunday! So thank your folks for your family genes, but thank Marshals for your jeans!

4. Milk

Growing up I always wanted to be just like my mom. So I drank milk. Studies suggest that people who drink it regularly are much healthier than those who don't. So drink 24 ounces of low fat or fat free milk every 24 hours and see for yourself. Who says father knows best? Milk your diet. Feel great!

5. Ball Park Franks

My Dad likes Ball Park franks with mustard. I like Ball Park Franks with mustard. My Dad eats his Ball Park Frank with one hand. I eat my Ball Park Frank with one hand. My Dad says Ball Park Franks are the best hot dog in the whole world. I say- well, you get the idea.

6. Allstate

(serious, sympathetic, slow)

If 12 jumbo jets crashed every year, something would be done about it. Every year, nearly 6,000 teens die in automobile accidents. We can all help stop teen driving deaths--and the good news is we can start today. It's time to make the world a safer place to drive. That's Allstate's stand. Allstate, you're in good hands.
